

International Languages Day 2014

An event to celebrate European Languages Day 2014

Name:

Form:

Group number:

Welcome to International Languages Day for year 8. During today's activities, you will experience different languages in a practical way.

There will also be an opportunity for you to win prizes during the language quiz which will take place during tutorial.

Your name sticker will have your group number on it: please make sure that you wear it all day.

The timetable of activities is printed below: to find what you are doing during the day, find your group number at the top of the column, and read down. It may help you to colour in what you will be doing during the day.

Chinese Calligraphy

龍

A treasured oriental art

In this part you will be given a brief introduction about the unique feature of Chinese characters and learn how to hold a brush to write Chinese characters. You also can get you name written in Chinese characters.

The Four Treasures of the Study

The ink brush, ink, paper, and ink stone are essential implements of Chinese calligraphy. They are known together as the Four Treasures of the Study. In addition to these four tools, a water-dropper, desk pads and paperweights are also used by calligraphers.

Tour de France Webquest

Madame Thomas – room 42

Every year in France, there is a very famous cycling race called 'Le Tour de France'.

In this session you are going to use the internet to research the race in order to answer the following questions.

It's completely up to you how you present your work.

Use the following websites;

1. www.letour.fr
2. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tour_de_france
3. <http://tourdefrance.nbcsports.com/>

The first website is the official race website and most information can be found there: to select the English version, click on the British flag.

The full document is available to download at:

<http://madamethomasfrench.wordpress.com/international-languages-day/>

Save all of your work onto your network space, and email a copy to Mme Thomas: ethomas@cathays.cardiff.sch.uk

The best pieces will win prizes!
